

RIVERSIDE RANCH
501(c)(3) Nonprofit Organization

CHILDREN'S GRIEF GROUP

At Riverside Ranch Adaptive
Horsemanship and Day Retreat Facility

Monday July 8th- Wednesday 10th, 2024
9-10:30am each day

ABOUT OUR GROUP

3 day morning retreat for children and their parent/caregiver going through grief on our private 36 acre horse farm in Clayton, NC. Come together as we share our grief, spend time in God's creation with community and horses. All unmounted horsemanship activities.

COST AND REGISTRATION

$90 per child for all 3 days total

Financial Aid Scholarship
Opportunities Available if needed!

To register: Contact
info@riversideranch.org

Deadline for registration 6/4/24

10 spots available total

www.riversideranch.org

ABOUT OUR FACILITATORS

Andrea Eaves, LCSW at Into the Light Counseling

Andrea Eaves is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker with over 20 years of experience in grief counseling. She helps individuals and groups navigate through grief. Andrea personally experienced several losses at a young age and this catapulted her passion to help others who have lost loved ones. She sees grief as one that is intricate and expansive, offering a safe space for those navigating loss to get to healing.

Sarah Valentine, Founder and Executive Director of Riverside Ranch

Sarah Valentine is the founder of our farm and a certified PATH Adaptive Riding and Horsemanship Instructor. Sarah has had many losses in her own life and has a heart to help others in grief through Jesus, nature, community and horses.